Summary

I am a technology entrepreneur and a transformation leader. Currently at ProFount, I am transforming immigration data into actionable insights through our B2C SaaS platform, WhereismyGC to empower users with intuitive, self-service data analytics. Previously, I have transformed fortune 100 global organizations at Honeywell and AstraZeneca. Using simplification, and technology enabled new operating models I have delivered billions of dollars in operational efficiency, built shared services and elevated overall performance to world class. You are welcome to read my transformation stories at :
1) "The power of business transformation: How simplification unlocks business performance" (2013). Available on Amazon.
2) "The power of artificial intelligence: How AI is changing everything we know". (planned). Work in progress at https://bit.ly/3PP9wUV
